The May 20 Election – Pro/Con on Raising Local School Taxes

State law allows school districts to raise local taxes to supplement state funding. Very soon you will get a mail ballot on referendum 34-67 from the Beaverton School Board to levy $60 million over three years.

At our May meeting we present speakers from groups pro and con regarding this referendum. Each of the two speakers will present followed by brief rebuttals.

Pro: Citizens For School Support

Con: No On 34-67 Committee

Unlike the general election in November this referendum follows the 50-50 rule. In order to pass not only must the 'yes' vote exceed 50% but the voter participation must also exceed 50%.

See you Thursday May 8 at 7:00pm in Southridge High School's Community Room.

This is the last regular meeting of the South Beaverton NAC until Thursday September 11, 2003.
